

Dean's Advisory Committee on Resource Allocation

The Dean's Advisory Committee on Resource Allocation is composed of nine tenured faculty members who advise the dean on setting college priorities.

Composition and Organization:

1. Members are usually appointed to three-year terms.
2. Approximately 1/3 of the committee is replaced each year.
3. Members are nominated by the department chairs/program directors and/or the dean.
4. Members may be reappointed for more than one term, but not consecutive terms.
5. The annual cycle of a committee member's term begins August 16 and ends August 15 of the following year.
6. Committee members shall have the rank of associate or full professor.
7. Committee members shall not concurrently hold the position of department chair or associate dean.
8. The arts, humanities, and social sciences shall have at least one committee member representative.
9. The dean shall serve as convener of the committee.
